THE DENVER POST NAMES WORKPLACE ELEMENTS A WINNER OF THE COLORADO TOP WORKPLACES 2020 AWARD

Denver, CO. May 10, 2020 – Workplace elements has been awarded a Top Workplaces 2020 honor by The Denver Post. The list is based solely on employee feedback through an anonymous survey that uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few.

“To be a Top Workplace has been a goal of our leadership team for years. Not for the notoriety, but because it validates that we are doing many things right for our employees and our customers. This award serves as continued motivation to elevate the employee and customer experience to even greater heights.

Being named a Top Workplace is a big deal — only 150 companies made this year’s list. I am honored, especially because the judges were our employees!” – Traci Lounsbury, CEO
